

Lingham Primary School

Collective Worship Policy

Lingham Primary School
Approved by Governors: 29th March 2016
Updated: February 2016
Review date: Spring Term 2017

We believe that in our daily collective worship when all members of the school come together, we try to create an occasion which produces a variety of responses, one of which is worship. We understand worship to be a special act or occasion whose purpose is to show reverence to God.

We acknowledge the 1988 Education Reform Act which clearly states that collective worship should be 'wholly or mainly of a broadly Christian character'. Therefore, we base all our assemblies on the teachings of Christ and the traditions of the Christian Church.

However, we believe we must conduct our assemblies in a manner that is sensitive to the individual faith and beliefs of all members of the school. Therefore, throughout the academic year we will hold assemblies that reflect other religions as we want all children to feel included whatever their beliefs or background.

We would like everyone to take an active part in our collective worship but we are aware that teachers have the right to withdraw from the religious element of collective worship. We acknowledge the right of parents to withdraw their children from collective worship.

We wish to work closely with the School Council and to hear their views and opinions as we acknowledge and support Article 12 of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child that children should be encouraged to form and to express their views.

We acknowledge that children's entitlement to Acts of Collective Worship should not be affected by gender, culture, race or special needs. We will ensure that there are no barriers to this equality of opportunity.

We as a school community have a commitment to promote equality. Therefore, an equality impact assessment has been undertaken and we believe this policy is in line with the Equality Act 2010.

Organisation

The Education Reform Act states that collective worship need no longer be at the start of the school day, and worship may take place in a single act of worship or separate acts of worship in different age groups.

We have decided to hold a daily act of worship in each key stage and at different times.

The beginning of any school day is always hectic and we are concerned that rushing pupils through registration and then into the hall for worship is devaluing the occasion and making the pupils unsettled. Therefore, our aim is to move our time of worship to before and after mid-morning break.

There will be occasions when worship, because of unforeseen circumstances, will take place in individual classrooms and be conducted by class teachers.

Length, Time and Pace

We are aware that we have to fulfill a statutory amount of teacher-pupil contact time namely, $22\frac{1}{2}$ hours for infants and $23\frac{1}{2}$ hours for juniors. Collective worship is not included in this time.

Therefore, our collective worship will be kept to 15 minutes with several minutes being allowed for the pupils coming in making a maximum of no more than 20 minutes.

Composition

Music - taped/CD music should be played at the beginning and end of collect worship which, if possible, fits in with the theme for the week. The title of the music and the composer should be written on the magi-board above the piano.

Hymns - should be chosen to reflect the theme for the week or the day. Taped hymn singing will be used for the children to sing along with when it is not possible to use piano accompaniment.

Prayers - the children should be introduced to several prayers which we expect them to learn. The compilation of pupils' prayers should be actively encouraged and made into a book of prayers to be used at relevant times.

Provider - the provider may be the Headteacher, Deputy Head, class teacher, pupils, vicar, or outside speaker.

Theme - the theme to follow will be that planned by the co-ordinator.

Activities

In planning collective acts of worship we must bear in mind the following activities: -

□ singing, readings and storytelling, rituals, drama, music for listening, responses, audio-visual presentation, interviews, symbols, prayer, dance, visiting speakers and cooking

Planning the Year

When planning the year the co-ordinator will think carefully about the inclusion of the following :-

- High days and holidays
- Saint Days
- Feasting for Festivals
- World Faiths
- National
- World Events

Planning for the academic year will take place before the end of each half term and all staff will then be given a year plan of the proposed collective acts of worship.

Involvement of Local Religious Groups

We believe that the involvement of local religious groups is vital to the development of our pupils. Therefore, speakers from local religious groups will be invited to speak to our pupils when we celebrate collective worship.

Involvement of Others

We actively encourage the involvement of outside speakers such as the local Police, lollipop lady etc. who will be invited to take an active part in our collective worship on a set theme.

Involvement of Parents

Parents will be invited to attend their child's class assemblies which take place once every academic year.

Achievements Assembly

The assembly on Friday morning is an occasion when the whole school meets to share together the successes and achievements of individual pupils either in or out of school. Also, house points are awarded and birthdays celebrated.

Raising Awareness of this Policy

We will raise awareness of this policy via:

- ☐ the School Handbook/Prospectus

Training

We ensure all school personnel have equal chances of training, career development and promotion.

Periodic training will be organised for all school personnel so that they are kept up to date with new information and guide lines concerning equal opportunities.

Equality Impact Assessment

Under the Equality Act 2010 we have a duty not to discriminate against people on the basis of their age, disability, gender, gender identity, pregnancy or maternity, race, religion or belief and sexual orientation.

This policy has been equality impact assessed and we believe that it is in line with the Equality Act 2010 as it is fair, it does not prioritise or disadvantage any pupil and it helps to promote equality at this school.

Monitoring the Effectiveness of the Policy

Annually (or when the need arises) the effectiveness of this policy will be reviewed by the coordinator, the Headteacher and the nominated governor and the necessary recommendations for improvement will be made to the Governors
